OVERVIEW 2011

Where Will You Go with A&K in 2011?

Abercrombie & Kent has an immense array of journeys for 2011, offering the signature benefits of A&K travel: insider access, Tour Directors who travel with you, around-the-clock support and itineraries designed to seamlessly blend the best features of your destination. All 2011 Discovery, Connoisseurs and Family departures are guaranteed to operate.

We have 58 programs priced under $6,000 per person and 67 programs that are 10 days or less – ideal for anyone who has limited vacation time.

To help you decide which type of trip is right for you, we have included the chart below that gives you an overview of both our group escorted and private journeys. Your most difficult decision is certain to be which great destination to choose next.
